The table below lists the measurements and materials required for building the chest front. Each row provides the reference, quantity, part, stock, thickness, width, length, and comments. The hardware and supplies section includes details on the number of antique-finish drawer pulls and escutcheons required.